RHDG closes deal on Skylake website

April 2008

Riezebos Holzbaur Design Group (RHDG) has finalized a deal with San Francisco based company Skylake Development for the creation of their commercial real estate division's website.

Since its formation in 2004, Skylake has grown into an industry leader with a special focus on customer service.

RHDG will be responsible for the design, development and implementation of the new website, which will focus on the Commercial real estate branch of Skylake Development.
