RHDG wins three awards at 2010 Bookbuilders West Book Show

February 2010

Riezebos Holzbaur Group (RHDG) was thrilled to accept three awards at the 39th Annual Bookbuilders West Book Show, held on January 27, 2010 at Chronicle Books in San Francisco.

In the Trade, Image Driven category, the advertising, marketing, and design group was recognized for its innovative work on the cover of a book documenting the 106-year history of the Tour de France: The Unknown Tour de France: The Many Faces of the World's Bicycle Race by Les Woodland, published by Cycle Publishing. RHDG captured two more awards in the School Publishing category, winning for the text and cover design of the Second Edition of Nutrition for Life by Thompson & Manore, and for excellence in interior (text) design for Access to Health, Green Edition, by Donatelle, both published by Pearson Education.

One of the publishing industry's largest and most prestigious events, the Bookbuilders Book Show recognizes leaders and innovators annually. RHDG is honored to have consistently ranked amongst the show's top competitors since 1996.
